

Glenn Charles Brignole

April 9, 1949 - May 10, 2024

Brignole, Glenn Charles of Valley Park, Missouri, was born April 9, 1949 in St. Louis, Missouri to William and Agnes (nee Clayton) Brignole and entered into rest Friday, May 10, 2024 in Cedar Hill, Missouri at the age of 75 years.

He is preceded in death by his parents, William and Agnes (nee Clayton) Brignole; siblings, William Brignole Jr., and Sharon Brignole.

He is survived by his daughter, Jennifer (Ryerson) Bauske; grandchildren, Logan Brignole, Kayleigh Brignole-Waitman and Raiden Bauske; great grandson, Jayden Brignole; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Glenn was a true embodiment of versatility and warmth. With a passion for NASCAR that ignited his spirit, he found solace and excitement in the roaring engines and adrenaline-filled races. Beyond the racetrack, his hands were as skilled with tools as they were in the kitchen, effortlessly navigating between being a handyman and a culinary maestro. His knack for fixing things and whipping up delicious meals was matched only by his love for gathering loved ones around the table, sharing laughter and stories over his delectable creations. Yet amidst his varied interests, Glenn found comfort in the simple joy of unwinding with his favorite TV shows, finding moments of relaxation and entertainment that brought him joy. In every aspect of his life, Glenn's warmth, passion, and knack for bringing people together left an indelible mark, making him a cherished presence in the lives of all who knew him.
