“ How could I forget how hard and long Gloria and I laughed when Auntie's cot slowly collapsed under her. The look on her face was priceless. We'd just get settled down and then one of us would start in again. I'm not sure how we ever got to sleep that night on the Meyers" farm. A couple of my fondest memories are trips to McAllister's for lunch with your Mom and Grandma. Those were special days. My prayers are with you all as you grieve your loss.
