

Grant E. Sebaugh

September 9, 1961 - October 14, 2025

Grant E. Sebaugh, age 64, of Hillsboro, Missouri, passed away on October 14, 2025, at his home. Born on September 9, 1961, in St. Louis, Missouri, Grant was the son of MaryAnn Fieser and the late Raymond Sebaugh. He worked in logistics sales throughout his career and was admired for his dedication and work ethic. Outside of work, he enjoyed outdoor activities and listening to music. Above all, Grant treasured time spent with his family and found great joy in his newest role as a grandfather.

Grant is survived by his loving wife of 40 years, Joan (Taylor) Sebaugh; his four children, Brendon (Jessica) Sebaugh of Fenton, Spencer Sebaugh of St. Louis, Shelby (Nathan) Walsh of Hillsboro, and Breanna Sebaugh of St. Louis; and his grandson, Robin Walsh. He is also survived by his siblings, Sabrina (Bill) Hurtgen of Hillsboro, Tanalyn (Dave) Dollar of Hillsboro, and Scott (Kim) Sebaugh of Hillsboro. Additional surviving family includes his in-laws, Bob (Kathy) Taylor of Cedar Hill; sisters-in-law, Elaine (Miles) Rich of St. Louis and Angie Taylor of Hillsboro; brother-in-law, Bobby (Angel) Taylor of Oklahoma; as well as many nieces, nephews, and dear friends.

He was preceded in death by his brother-in-law, David Taylor.

Grant will be remembered as a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend whose love and kindness touched all who knew him. He will be forever loved and dearly missed.

A gathering to celebrate his life was held on October 25, 2025, at Chapel Hill Mortuary, Robert Brown Chapel.

Tribute Wall

DH

“ Just heard about Grant’s passing, was very sorry to hear about it, Grant was quite the athlete when he was in high school, in fact he generally had the highest batting average and was quite fast at wind sprints beating me fairly easily, again, I wish my condolences to the family, I actually used to tutor Grant a little when he was in college, he will be missed by everyone and was really a great man, Drew Hogan

Drew Hogan - November 01, 2025 at 09:46 AM