“ The first time I met Gwen was when her son Mike brought me to her house. She was so excited I only got in the front door about a step when she and the rest of the family started welcoming me and asking about how Mike and I met, what I did, where I was born, did I have brothers/sister, etc. She was kind, caring, funny, generous with love, a believer and always tried to find the good in people. She will be dearly missed by me and the munchkins (Colby & Claire), but we know that she is in heaven with Hope, Grandpa Ron and Gilbert (the cat). Rest in peace Gwen.

P.S. Claire loves the ballerina doll you sent her last week. <3
