“ I remember Kathy's mom (Mrs. Kennedy to me because that's the way it was done in 1970) as being a modern-aged woman who worked full time and raised a family. I don't remember a lot more than that (other than a short visit at her house on the river a couple of years ago), but I certainly consider her a brave and strong woman who helped make strong children. My condolences to the whole family.
