“ I was so sorry to learn of Harland's passing. My late husband Roscoe Reed and I were close friends of Harland and Shirley years ago. My late dad, Bob Walters also knew your dad from his days as a store manager at National Markets. We rode horses together and camped at Ellington and Lesterville for a number of very happy years. Your parents were wonderful friends and we shared many Saturday evening meals together when they lived in StL county and in Labadie. Your dad always had a great eye for horses and his mini donkey was a favorite. My very sincere condolences to your family for your loss of a real gentleman and friend.
