“ To me, my Uncle Harley was a silent giant. I remember as a little girl we would go visit the Twins on Sunday afternoons or for Thanksgiving. Uncle Harley would be watching football and I would climb up in his lap and sit as long as I wanted. It would usually last all of about 10 minutes because it was a one-way conversation. Whatever I would say or ask I always got a deep quite response of "uhm". I learned early on that Uncle Harleys lap was for napping or watching football. And that suited me just fine, because I knew, I was always welcome. So many found memories of a giant of a man who lived a very quiet life.

Uncle Harley, will you please check on the construction of my mansion? Make sure Grandpa, Dad and Uncle George are building it just right. You all did such a good job on MY cedar plank playhouse that I know my mansion in heaven is going to be fabulous!

Your Loving Niece,
Lou Ann Russell Forman

“Uncle Harley will always hold a beloved place in my heart. It’s no secret, he was a man of few words, but there’s no question where his life stood: for his family (immediate & extended) & his faith. I will always be indebted to him & Uncle George for making sure mom’s home was safe for her after the accident. I will always hysterically remember the guys bantering back & forth about whose “construction” idea was better for mom’s best interest. I suddenly realized how much fun & real my uncles were at that moment. There are a ton of delightful memories shared between our families on numerous Sunday afternoons, summer backyard BBQ’s, & Christmas get togethers with grandma & grandpa in Ames. Uncle Harley & mom shared one last sibling visit a week before she passed away, & it was a blessing to her & me. “Uncle Harley, you will be missed, but we know you are with a host of others that will be waiting to greet us when it’s our turn.” Love & hugs to Aunt Mary, Michael, Sandra, Larry & Sherry

“Oh I knew this day would come. Uncle Harley was a quiet man but when he spoke you listened. I remember a little Cedar Playhouse, Uncle Harley helped build, that was mine (Lois) but LouAnn says it was for her. I remember zip lines, swimming pool, dinner on the ground, BBQ, fireworks, egg hunts and tractor rides. We laughed until we cried and laughed some more. We loved going to the Twins homes. Just nothing like the Rogers clan. I am so good to be a part of this wonderful family. Uncle Harley until we see you again in Heaven. Love you, Lois (Russell) Wood
