“ I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Tony was always a stand up guy !
Such a hard worker.
He always had a smile and always worked with us when we rented from him. I will always remember his easy going ways. I will miss him.
Sorry for your families loss.

My condolences to the Glacken Family for the loss of your Dad, Tony! I know what you are going through. I lost my Dad in 1974 two months after I graduated. It's a very hard time. But, know that he is in the arms of his Lord and rejoicing. Also, being reunited with his family. You just have to live life one day at a time. Continue to make him proud.
