Harold was a loving father, grandfather, brother, and special friend to many. He loved spending time with the family.

Harold had a big heart - always friendly and greeted everyone with a smile. He had a humorous side with a contagious laugh – lit up a room. He was the “life of the party”.

Harold served in the Navy. He had a career in printing and advertisement, as a printer.

Harold enjoyed sports – a huge St. Louis Cardinal and Blues fan. He loved amusement parks, especially roller-coasters and thrill rides – often times amused by family members who were not so thrilled at the rides.

Harold had a passion for music – playing the guitar...especially with his sister Jean.

Harold will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
