“ Ohh Mr West. I would smile every time you came into the pharmacy! I loved hearing you sing and especially the stories of you visiting the nursing home (oh how you blushed). Thank you for your kindness and big heart. You will be missed. Sandy Smith, former pharmacy tech at Cedar Hill Drug.

Dear Sweet Harold!! I can't count the times you lifted me up when I was down, made me smile when I didn't feel like smiling. The numerous times you'd call to check on me and AI when you yourself was so sick! Your love of the Lord inspired me and countless others!! There aren't enough words to express my love and admiration. There will always be an empty chair there in the back row. I'll miss your hugs and the "I love yous" each time we'd see each other. I know you are happy and out of pain in the home of our Lord. Play on, my dear friend! Play on. Love Bev Moore!!

*My brother-in-law, Harold. I have been trying to get in touch with you for months. You were so good to keep in touch with me after Jim died.
Finally I put your name in the search bar of the internet and your obituary came up. I am so saddened. He promised me that he would tell Renee to call me if anything happened to you. I will miss our telephone conversations! You were such a kind, loving person. I will miss you! Love you, Jo Ann (West) Franklin.*
