“ I'm so thankful that I was able to meet Uncle Harry and Aunt Clare for lunch last April when I was in town. We had lots of laughs as I was trying to find a manual on line for an adding machine Uncle Harry was trying to repair. He didn't care that they weren't used anymore. He just wanted to figure it out. I realized that day just how much he had in common with my dad, his brother Richard. Uncle Harry will be missed but I'm sure those two brothers are in heaven fixing something!! 🙏 Sending love and prayers to the family.

“ My husband's grandpa Grupe. It was a blessing and a honor to have known him and to be apart of his family. I called him a beast because he was such a fighter!!!! I'm imaging him in heaven with his siblings! He lost a brother at a very young age too. Grandpa you will be missed, until we meet again!!! ❤️ We will take care of grandma for you! Your love for her was one of a kind!!!

“ Harry will be Missed for so Many things. His Big smile and laugh will always be with me. He was like a second father figure, Growing up my whole life with him and Clare being so much a part of our family. The times when they lived in the city and then moved to Highridge seemed liked it took forever for Us to drive on Saturday nights so they could play pinochle. We was so Blessed to be a Family unit with Bunny and Debbie growing up and still along the way we still have managed to keep it together. Prayers are with you Clare, Bunny & Debbie. Imagine Dad and Harry keeping all those stars lit along with all the other Electricans. Love and Prayers are with you all, Pam
