

Harry Brookings Miller

February 12, 1948 - July 25, 2022

Brook Miller was born February 12, 1948 in St Louis, Missouri to the late Harry L. Miller and Halle (nee Galhuly) Miller. Brook graduated from Country Day High School. He attended several colleges including Film and Photography School in California, University of Boulder in Colorado, and Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. Brook was proud of his longtime home at 345 Dickson St. in Kirkwood, Missouri where he lived for 50 years of his life.

Brook considered himself a self-taught Investor. He loved to travel, one of his favorite places was the Colorado Mountains. He was enthusiastic about skiing, swimming, and golfing. Brook loved going to art stores and some may consider him to be an aficionado of art and Blues and Classic music. Brook took long walks with his beloved dogs, Foxy and Brownie, and loved all animals.

Brook is survived by his; Sister Gay Miller (Hugh McCurdy) Eaton III of Dublin New Hampshire, Nephew Hugh McCurdy Eaton IV of San Clemente, CA, Niece Halle Eaton Carbajo of Brooklyn, NY, Seven Great nieces and nephews. He will be missed by long Time friends: Renee Campbell and her daughter Autumn Tumberello of St. Peters, and Nancy Hooper of Kirkwood, Missouri

He will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by all who knew and loved him. Family and friends can review and share stories, photos and condolences online at www.stlfuneral.com
