“ *Leroy was a great man who loved his soulmate Patsy! I can remember the good times we had at the St. Patty's day dances and the many times Leroy and Patsy would come out to hear the hand and Jim Luck amazing his dad on the fiddle with Leroy's favorite song, Seminole Wind.
Go rest high Leroy!*

“ The absolute best grandfather I could ask for! He could fix anything feom a hungry tummy to a broken heart to a car that wont start. He could also teach algebra and how to write in cursive. And when we didnt have homework he would be our personal DJ while hanging out in the kitchen. He love his family and his friends more than anything, mostly he loved my Grandmother Patsy. He only had eyes for her and he loved her till the day he passed. I love that I spent most of my childhood in his home. His grandchildren will miss him dearly.

“ Leroy went out of his way to give me work, gave me a seat at his own table and always treated me like I was part of the family. I am forever grateful for the entire family and can never repay their kindness. Mark Green

“ LeRoy was probably my best friend. He had the unique ability to look past the bull, and see the raw truth. I often told him that when they elected me President, I wanted him in the next door office where we had a full time “always on” intercom so he could hear everything. I could depend on him always telling me the straights of it!
I thought that much of his opinion....
Life won't be the same without him....

*He was born with wings,
He was destined to fly,
He can now see why.
He has no fear,
His vision is clear,
He is free to fly as an angel without a care.
He was born with wings of an angel you see,
For now he is free.*
