

Heather Nichole Pearson

August 21, 1969 - April 25, 2024

Pearson, Heather Nichole, of St. Louis, Missouri, was born August 21, 1969 in Champaign, Illinois to Doraine Pearson and Curtis Roberts and entered into rest Thursday, April 25, 2024 in St. Louis, Missouri at the age of 54 years.

She is preceded in death by her father, Curtis Roberts.

She is survived by her loving mother, Doraine Pearson; daughter, Selena Green; girlfriend, Kristina Mouton; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Heather was a vibrant soul whose passion for life shone through her love for movies, genuine connections, and the art of storytelling. As an insurance agent, she approached each interaction with warmth and empathy, recognizing that every tale, no matter how grand or humble, deserved to be heard. From her days managing at Blockbuster to her pursuit of creative expression through writing and poetry, including her studies in creative writing at Webster University, she left an indelible mark on those she encountered. With a heart full of compassion and knack for weaving words, she even shared her insights through an article in the Riverfront Times. Having honed her culinary craft as a graduate from L'Ecole Culinaire in St. Louis, Heather delighted all with her remarkable culinary talents. Her legacy of kindness, creativity, and boundless curiosity lives on in the hearts of all who were fortunate enough to know her.
