“Helen lived across the street from me many yrs ago. She was a very sweet lady and my husband and I talked to her a lot when she was outside. She was very nice and friendly. I remember she baked things and brought it over to Tim and I a few times. Since then, I became friends with her niece Cindy and her nephew Mike they are both very sweet too. ❤️ rest in peace, Helen.

“Aunt Helen (as I called her) was a lovely lady that greeted you with a smile every time you met her. I have not seen her in many years but know she will be missed by her family.
