“ Steve, To know your dad was to immediately and forever feel his fierce love of family. His humor, love of music, worldly experiences, compassion and encouragement were early and lasting traits I will always remember. Each of you do such honor to him. I am deeply sorry for your loss.

“ A bright, steady light has left this world, but, fortunately, has left behind another glowing very brightly. That's you, Steve. I remember sitting at your dinner table as a child eating your mom's great spaghetti with your Dad being a steady, and SMILING presence. And my fondest memory of your Dad was when I saw him again for the first time after maybe 35 years and saw that elfish grin again. I'll miss him too and I think the greatest tribute to him may well be you and your family.

“ Steve, I am so sorry for your loss. I know how close you and your dad were. I knew Herman in his latter years at McAuto. He always had that smile and a clever remark. Herman seemed to get along with everyone - a rarity in any company. He was a business success and a personal success. Most of all, he was a great success as the head of your family. Herman, you and your family will be in my prayers. What a great guy.
