“ Sue and I were in a church Christmas play in 2010. It was the Nativity story set in the Wild West. I was the owner of the saloon (aka Innkeeper) and Sue was one of my “floozyies” that worked at the saloon. We had a blast and even did a little line dance with some of the cowboys that hung around the saloon. Sue loved to have fun and now she can dance again in heaven with no pain at all. I can hear her laughing in my memories!
See you soon, Sue Surratt!!! Dana Aikin
