

Irene Ross

December 30, 1912 - June 22, 2007

Irene worked as a teacher in the Hillsboro and Fox School Districts. Obtained a Bachelor of Arts and Education from Washington University and a Masters Degree in Environmental Education from Webster University. A member of the Lake Tishomingo Garden Club, Biloxi Mississippi Jazz Club, and the Biloxi Mississippi Scottish Society. She was passionate about environmental and human service issues.

Survived by daughter- Betty (husband Lou) Struckman of Crestwood Missouri, granddaughter- Lisa (husband John) Mahoney of Hillsboro Missouri, great-grandchildren Jennifer Hornung of Louisville Kentucky, Michael Hornung of Crestwood Missouri and Jeffrey Williamson of Hillsboro Missouri, also a sister- Lillian Gale of Murphysboro Illinois and a brother in law Jerome Schwartzmann.

Preceded in death by her Husband of 61 years Richard C. Ross, parents James H. and Florence E. Maclean (nee Powell) as well as a grandson-Jeffrey R. Struckman And brother- Deward Maclean, two sisters- Mildred Klein and Nina Schwartzmann. And a brother in law Hilbert Gale