“ When I heard the news my memory flashed with images of Irma pulling in my driveway already with atleast 2 others in the car on the way to some sporting event or dropping Cathy and I off at a football game, plaza or movie. As a teenager I looked at her as such a kind person, always giving of herself to others and in my presence NEVER complained. Facing adversity but overcoming as she was stronger than we as kids could understand. She worked hard and stayed awake for more hours a day than seemed possible keeping her home intact while loving Cathy, Dennis, Bobby and Debbie the best she could.

Irma will be so missed but will always remain in my heart.
