“ Handy Andy that was one of the names we gave him. He was not scared to try anything at least once. He could be so mad he was ready to fight you. Then the next minute he would be ready to do anything for you I miss you buddy.

“ To the family of Joseph A. Decker,

I am sorry for your loss. May you find comfort in knowing that God is "near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." (Psalm 34;18) With sympathy,

“ My sincerest condolences. I'm so happy to have known Drew. Although a majority of our interactions were through conducting typical business at Savvis we also had multiple opportunities to bond outside of work and I enjoyed those times very much and am grateful for the memories they provided of Drew. My thoughts and prayers are with the entire family during this difficult time.
