She was a country girl at heart and loved to fish, hunt and go four wheeling. She was a great southern home cook and there was plenty for anyone who stopped by. Jackie's very core was selfless and generous. She made so many wonderful memories with her grandbabies to last a lifetime. “ Jackie was my best buddy at work. We shared stories of our lives daily. So many laughs about our grandkids' antics, the bragging on their successes and just how much we loved them in general.

She so loved Ronnie, her kids, her grandkids, her fur babies and going to their home away from home in the country. They were all very frequent topics of conversation.

Jackie was also a wonderful support system through trying times. We laughed. We cried. We vented. We shared so much and had so much in common, the stories were endless.

She was a hard worker and did her job well. Always taking the time to question anything she thought wasn't just right to make sure she kept the customers happy. Such an asset to our department.

Jackie will truly be missed by all. Such a strong, caring women that was loved by many.

RIP Jackie. You're now back with your mom. You will be missed by all.

Much love Chica - karen stobie
