“ I have many memories of my Aunt Jackie. My Aunt Jackie had many talents, one was cake baking and decorating. One of my birthday's, I wanted a cake with a doll on it. My wonderful Aunt Jackie, made me a beautiful cake with a doll in the middle of it. I love it. It was so pretty. But, one thing was missing. the candles. She told me I couldn't light candles, the doll would catch fire. Being a young girl, I didn't think the doll would catch fire, ha, ha.. I think you know where this is going, ha, ha ! She put candles on the cake, let them, guess what, the doll's hair caught on fire with a blink of an eye, ha, ha. My Aunt Jackie knew what she was talking about. From that point on, I never questioned her again.

I have many get memories of my trip to Germany. 1996, I received my 4th. kidney transplants. In 1998. My Aunt Jackie & Uncle Fritz took me on a trip of a life time. My wonderful cousin's Keith, Annette and Jenny welcomed me with open arms. They all gave me memories I only could dream of. xoxoxoxox

I love you and will miss you Aunt Jackie, but, not forgotten...
