“ Jackie and I met at Riverview Gardens Grade School in kindergarten in 1947. We went to a Brownie meeting and decided not to join. We went all the way through high school together and continued to get together with our families through the years. One memory that is very vivid is when we took the bus and streetcar all the way down on Grand Avenue to go to the Fox Theater. One day we missed the bus and walked home from Baden. In our early teens we were waiting to go to a dance at the high school, Elvis Presley was singing Blue Suede Shoes and they only showed him from the waist up. We also went to church activities. time I loved her like a sister!!
