“ my dearest connie... each loss wields such a drastic blow to ones physical and emotional life, and you have suffered so much over the past 8 months. our hearts are heavy for the pain and loss you have had to endure. i'm not good with words at a time like this, but understand that the love and support we send to you are strong. we love you and miss you tremendously. stay strong and remember that you are loved by many. (just don't forget that we all are always here if you need someone to lean on).

much love to you my dearest one.
