“ Jim was one of my favorite people in this world. We sang together in the church choir (6 of us) and had a great time harmonizing (most of the time) and laughing at each other. He had a quick wit and never used it in a malicious way. Jim always sat in the pew behind me and my daughters at church. He always had great words of wisdom for my girls and if not at least ideas which could get them into mischief at church. We will miss our dear friend but know we will see him again. As the song says, when we all get to heaven what a glorious rejoicing there will be!
