“ My family was so sorry to hear of Jane's passing. She sat at the lunch table with my mom at Mabor Grove and her beautiful smile and her kindness to my mom was always so appreciated by us. My little granddaughter always liked to blow her kisses when we left. She was a very special lady and we will miss her. Prayers to your family.

“ I was a student who worked with Jane "Mrs. H" in Olin Library at Wash U in the late 60's/early 70's. She was a grand lady and I enjoyed working with her. She was very kind to everyone, had many friends on the staff and nurtured the student assistants.
