“ I never did I get as close as I should have to my Aunt Janet, but she was an individual who dealt with ladies, and without rejecting. us, the rambunctious nephews..That couldn't have been easy. I always respected her and was proud of her. And the Corvair next door, which captured an 11-year old's imagination, of course. I think she never got mad at me. a mystery. Thanks, I know it wasn't the easiest thing. Rest in peace my dear Aunt.
