Janet's greatest joy in life was her family. She loved her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren more than anything, and they were truly the light of her life. She dedicated her life to caring for others and would give everything she had to help someone in need. Janet gave endlessly of herself without expecting anything in return except love and time with the people she cared about most. She had a heart of gold, a gentle spirit, loved without condition, and gave without expectation. More than anything, she wanted people to feel loved, wanted, cared for, and never alone. She was compassionate, caring, forgiving, and always welcomed others with open arms. Janet never missed a chance to send a thoughtful message, give one of her unforgettable hugs, or show up when someone needed her. She loved crocheting, traveling, trying new foods, the ocean, the beauty of autumn leaves, catching a movie at the theater or a show at The Muny, playing with the babies, and spending time with family and friends playing Rummikub, Mexican Train, and card games. Her warmth, kindness, and selfless love touched countless lives, and her absence leaves an immeasurable void in the hearts of all who knew and loved her. She will be deeply missed, forever treasured, and lovingly remembered always.
