“ What a wonderful friend and co-worker. Even though we only worked together a short time we stayed in touch for 5 years having dinner once a month and enjoying baseball, the symphony, lots of laughs and stories. I have really missed her this past year since she had to be so ill. I know she is happy to be out of pain and in haven, however she told me there are so many other things she hoped and prayed to still be able to do.

My sincere condolences to Matt, Amy, Charlie, Johnny and the rest of her family. I was blessed to be able to share time with her "a one-of-kind terrific lady" and I will miss her very very much.

“ Words can not express my sorrow at Janet's passing. I had the great pleasure and honor of working with her the past 5 years. She was so real and so much fun! You always knew what she thought about anything. I will never forget her as long as I live. I know she's not sick anymore but I will miss her terribly.
