“ I remember as young boy we (Seegers family Janice cousins) we lived down the hill from Janice (Tayloe) family and in the summer yelling up the hill to Janice and Lee if they could come down and play. Before cell phones The summers Janice and Lee and I spent at our grandparents farm exploring the farm and the woods. Times in the barn hay loft, fishing, and climbing the rocky cliffs above the Bourbeuse River. And grandmas homemade bread. Great to share life with Janice and Lee. Rest in peace. Jerry Seegers
