“ I have known Bill for 26 years and came to love him like a brother.

He was always very generous with his time and ready to help anyone at any time.

I treasure all of the memories he, Betty and I have shared.

I'll miss our card games and float trips and how much fun he was with kids. He was a big teaser and lots of fun.

He is where we all hope to be when our time comes in the arms of Jesus!
