“ Jason Jason Jason I'll always remember the day your Mom and Dad told me that they were expecting you and how happy they were and proud parents through the years of you! I wish I could have been more a part of your living years but I'll remember the times your parents brought you over to see me Mike and Brett. Im sure you've seen Mike Berkompas up there you two are I'm sure talking and catching up on those years we missed out on .I love you Jason and we all will see you again when God calls us home.RIH JASON

“ I regret not having any recent memories with Jason, seeing what a truly awesome guy he turned out to be, but I'll always remember him as my absolute favorite cousin to hang out with whenever we would see eachother at family gatherings, and going to his roller skating birthday party waaaay back in the day and having an absolute blast with him. These are the things I'll always hang on to, and I'll forever wish we could've linked up one more time to talk music and Blues hockey. I'll love ya always, Jason <3

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I worked with Jason at Domino's. I always said to him don't make it harder than it is. He was a bit of an over thinker. I did get to talk to him 3 months ago and he told me how much he liked working with me. He was just being nice. He will be missed by many. Dianne Evans-Waugh
