

Jean Parsons

January 12, 1923 - March 18, 2021

Jean Parsons passed away peacefully on March 18, 2021 of natural causes. Jean was born January 12, 1923 in Herrin, Illinois, the only child to Ivor and Cassie Cagle Smith. She worked for many years in retail at Famous-Barr. Also she worked as a real estate agent for Century 21.

Jean loved to sing old hymns. She always had an abundance of beautiful plants and flowers both inside and outside of her remodeled two story home. She was always engaged in either home improvement projects or a variety of arts and craft projects. She loved browsing the antique shops. During WWII she worked for the Red Cross patching up wounded soldiers. Jean was an avid reader and fascinating story teller. Some stories she wrote were published professionally.

Jean is preceded in death by parents Ivor and Cassie Cagle Smith, husband Edward Parsons, granddaughter Michelle Marsh, son Scott Parsons, and daughter-in-law Sherry Parsons. She is survived by son Michael Parsons (Carol), daughter Suzeanne Parsons Marsh, four grandchildren, and four great grandchildren. Jean was a beautiful spirit that will be greatly missed and forever in our hearts.

Jean's memorial service will announced at a later date.

“ Jean was a wonderful friend who always left you in high spirits with her humor and wisdom. She left beauty in her wake. She was my close neighbor from my 25 th year until my 80s . She was so proud of Mike, Sue and Scott. She was welcoming to neighborhood kids who loved to play in her field. We shared great thoughts on politics and religion. Great of course since we were in agreement. Outings with Jean were an adventure. I miss her greatly. Marge Menius
