“ I work in activities at the nursing home Jean resided at. She was well known to many. Her and I would tease each other back and forth. She had a very feisty personality that everybody loved. Jean was never afraid to speak her mind. With Jean, what you saw was what you got. Jean always did her best to try and look after other residents, especially her roommate. Jean was definitely one of a kind. I have many fond memories of Jean and she will be missed. My deepest condolences to her family. Jean was ready to be reunited with her husband and was accepting of it. She is at peace. May Jean’s memory be a blessing. May she rest in peace. So long Jean. It was a pleasure.
