

Jearldean "Geri" Hinklin

October 20, 1948 - January 16, 2024

Jearldean "Geri" Hinklin (nee Cupp), of High Ridge, Missouri, was born October 20, 1948 in Senath, Missouri to Elvis Monroe and Erma Dean (nee Bradford) Cupp and entered into rest Tuesday, January 16, 2024 in St. Louis, Missouri at the age of 75 years.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Elvis Monroe and Erma Dean; husband, Verlie "Ray" Hinklin; and brother, L.D. Cupp.

She is survived by her children, Deana Diane (Jim) Pesek of High Ridge, Missouri, Buddy Ray (Leighanna) Hinklin of Cedar Hill, Missouri, and Jamie Lee Hinklin of Festus, Missouri; grandchildren, Rhiannon Alyss (Dustin) Schaeffer, Adrianna Grace (Alex LaRue) Pesek, Justin Ray (Alexia) Hinklin, Damon Michael, Dylan Steven, Jackson Lee Hinklin, Kennedy Leann Hinklin; great-grandchildren, Rowan James Schaeffer, Raelynn Grace Schaeffer, Michael Ray; sister, Diane (the late Melvin) Lindsey of Doniphan; along with numerous other extended family and friends.

Geri was deeply committed to her family which included her sweet pup, Charlie. The love of her grandchildren brought immense joy. She enjoyed embarking on journeys with friends and her time spent with the "Golden Girls." She was a beacon of faith, and her spirituality was a guiding force throughout her remarkable life. Geri enjoyed cooking and passed down family recipes, ensuring that each recipe was a link to the past and a gift to the future. Her avid love for animals, vibrant gardens, and cherished moments with friends and family will continue to inspire those who were fortunate enough to share her wonderful journey through life. She will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her.

“ Geri has been a second mom to me since Dee and I met when we were 10 years old. Over the years I would pop in for a visit and she was always so happy. I love that Geri and my mama were such close friends over the past years. I won't ever go to Cracker Barrel again and not think of her. When your bestie loses her mama and your mama loses her bestie, you thank God for His plan putting special people in your lives and appreciate that Heaven is for real. Love you, mama G!
