“ Like Nick and David, I grew up on the lake as well with Jeremy. I was a little younger than the others, but Jeremy was always so nice and kind and never made me feel out of place when I could hangout with them. Never forget playing whiffel ball up the street with him. Even to this day when I'd visit mom's at the lake, he'd still waive or we'd talk fishing, or throw around a ball in the field. He never let age or time change how he treated others. Gonna miss you buddy. Sorry we didn't get a chance to catch up sooner like we wanted to and hit those golf balls, but I'll be saving you a whole bucket for when we meet again. Til then, fly high brother and I'll see you on the other side.

“ Jeremy was the best friend anyone could ever have. There are so many memories I had with Jeremy I don't know where to begin. I grew up with him down by the lake. We did a lot together. We went creek fishing almost everyday. Played football and baseball in the big field, swam in the lake, got into trouble on occasion and had so much fun. Used to play video games for hours day after day trying to beat our previous scores. We would go skiing often to the little hill in Hidden Valley. We even went on a trip to Breckenridge, Colorado to ski the mountains. Jeremy was such a great friend I can't even remember one time we fought or argued. Over the years we each grew apart and had our own families. Whenever we met back up it was like no time had passed at all. Always picking up where we left off. The last time I spoke with Jeremy we had planned on getting our families together to fish at the lake. Jeremy you'll forever be in my heart and memories. My best goes out to Jim, Linda, Shannon and your family. You'll be remembered always. Go with peace brother. I'll miss you.

“ December 1980: I remember the look on your Mom’s face when Joe brought in a car seat and placed it on the couch. “Joe, Linda already has a car seat for Jeremy.” Then he uncovered the baby and handed her Josh. Meet your other new grandson. Although they were born just a day apart, their lives mirrored as much as their faces did. I’m so sorry, no words can express the pain that you’re going through. Sending you love and prayers and hope you are able to find strength in your memories during this dark time.

“ Jeremy was a great friend & the best skilled carpenter I've had. Jeremy updated 3 homes, 2 in StLouis & our NE Florida home where we retired. He spoke often of his kids, à great & caring father figure. After finishing our work in 2019, Jeremy drove to South Florida to Réunion with his brother. Pics are: the tile fireplace wall with mantel he built/installed, à touchup tip he left, the last bill for his work, & us just fishing.

Jeremy will live forever in our hearts for the impact he made in our lives & our homes.

“ I had the pleasure of growing up with Jeremy and know him since he was about 3 or 4 years old as the lil neighbor kid running around the lake. Most of our childhood we grew up creating so many memories together which I still look back on frequently to this day. Heck, I even remember when we decided we were going to run away from home, but got scared about an hour into our "wilderness" tour and went home, and even made it in one piece somehow. We would get in trouble and always caught riding our four wheelers where we weren't supposed to be and so on. 20+ years of being neighbor friends will create a lifetime of memories, and I'm thankful to of had them with Jeremy. He was always such a natural at everything he did it seemed. As we grew older, naturally with time, we had our own families and our own lifes. However, every once and a while we would sporadically run into each other and pick up where we left off and discuss what's happening in our own little worlds. Jeremy, you were good people, and you will be sorely missed. Thank you for being a friend. I am so terribly saddened for your family that I had not had the opportunity to meet. Jim, Linda, and Shannon I too am so sorry for loss as well. Jeremy, be well my friend, I pray to cross paths with you again, maybe we can play some baseball like we did in the field growing up, see you my friend.

“ I loved Jeremy so much since I was a 7 year old little girl with a big crush. He was just beautiful inside and out. We had a special connection when we were together no matter how much time went by...So many laughs and inside jokes between the 2 of us. He loved his family and his boys and he was a good man with a heart just about too big for his body to hold. Jeremy you will be missed so much and I will never forget you as long as I live. Rest easy my friend until I see you on the other side
