

Jettie Hobbs

January 13, 1942 - April 7, 2021

Jettie Arlene (Robbins) Seabaugh Hobbs, born January 13, 1942 in Joplin, MO to Bert Robbins Jr. and Kary (Haymes) Robbins and entered into rest Wednesday, April 7, 2021 in Fenton, Missouri at the age of 79. She was married on December 31, 1978 to the Love of her life and best friend Gary Lee Hobbs. They were married for 36 years until his death on March 16, 2015. This union brought together 2 families of children which God blessed us with 3 boys and 3 girls and made us, I truly believe, a family of 6 children. She is also preceded in death by her parents, grandparents and many relatives and friends. Survivors include her only brother Randall Robbins and his wife Linda of Florida, her children Jerry Lynn Seabaugh and wife Dinah of Cape Girardeau, MO, Tammi Leigh (Seabaugh) Babcock and husband Paul of Poplar Bluff, MO, Christopher Seabaugh and wife Billie Jo of St. Joseph, MO, Anthony Hobbs and wife Angie of Richwoods, MO, Melanie (Hobbs) Brown and husband Jeremy of St. Charles, MO, Michelle Hobbs Gant of House Springs, MO, 15 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Jettie worked in the field of credit and banking most of her working life, the largest portion in mortgage banking. She had to take early retirement following a stroke that affected her eyesight. She and Gary were long time members of Fenton United Methodist Church and she served in different capacities including teaching Disciple Bible Studies for several years. They also enjoyed camping in their RV and time with their large extended family.

“ *We give back to you Lord God precious Jettie that you so graciously and lovingly gave to us as a daughter, mother, wife, grandmother, Niece, Aunt, cousin and a friend. Your love is beyond measurable. She loved you and gave up her life to serve you, by loving others before herself. I'm personally grateful for the time she took me into her home during a very difficult season in my early teens. She cared for me as her own. Her christlike living has been an example and I know for many. I will treasure the pictures from our last "Haymes" reunion along with all the precious memories until it's my time to join her rejoicing and praising our Savior in Heaven eternally.
Love, Much Love
