Jim and Susan were gradeschool sweethearts, which found Jim often in the office for "kissing in the halls". That same devotion to one another inspired a loving, happy home where they raised three wonderful sons. Responsible, loyal and talented with a keen mind, Jim devoted more than twenty-six years to a career with Bill Williams Construction Company in Cedar Hill, Missouri and was equally passionate about his John Deere Tractors. To some in our community, he was the fiddle player, guitarist and lead singer in the family band, "Timberline". For others, he was simply a person who would help with anything you might need at the time. Throughout his lifetime, Jim drew his strength from God, always trying to make a difference in the lives of those he touched.
