“ Grant:

"I know your life on earth was troubled,

And only you could know the pain,

You weren't afraid to face the devil,

You were no stranger to the rain...

Go rest high on that mountain Son,

Your work on earth is done,

Go to heaven shouting, Love

For the Father and the Son."

We will all miss you Grant...the angels have gathered a tender soul.

“ I knew you 3 years as a coworker. You were always a hard working. I can still remember some of youre quirks too. My favorite side of you was youre sense of humor and My favorite memory with you was the night I was getting of work and stopped to talk to you before I went home. We talked about some positive things that made you light up and you even shared youre beleif in the scriptures of the Bible. That night we saw the goodness in eachother and in that moment in time there was just love and peace. That night was special from one human being to another and I can even remember you giving me such a genuine hug. You had no idea how many people cared about you. You are missed so dearly. In youre honor we will be releasing red balloons and wearing tyedye shirts in youre honor. You didnt standnout because of youre beautiful red hair, you stood out because you were different from some the average minded people. You were meant to flourish in a place where your talent layed but instead we got to have you even for a moment in time. You are free now away from the woes of this world and we miss you Jhon, you are not forgotten. youre friend, Rosalie. I pray for Gods mercy on youre soul, I pray that God helps ease the pain from the hearts and minds of the family and friends alike.

“ I've had the amazing privilege of knowing Mary (grandma) for the last 16yrs. She was one of the most amazing, strong, courageous, Christian woman I knew. From the moment I met her she welcomed me as family with open arms and an open heart. Bringing love, grace, and humor into my life as well as those around her. I will forever cherish the memories I was blessed to be part of. My favorite being; going with Sarah for a visit. Sarah with coffee in hand and I with her mounds and watching Dr. Quinn. Sarah painting her nails and grandma giving her a hard time trying to convince Sarah the shades didn't match while looking over at me with a wink and a grin. May you continue to watch over us and continue to be the strength in all of us. May you be welcomed with the loving arms of those you went before and may we be so blessed to be welcomed by your loving arms when it is time. This is not goodbye but an until I see you then. “ Dear Baumgartner family,

We don't know each other but please accept my deep regrets and sorrow for your loss and I'd like to share the hope and comfort I received when this enemy death took my entire family. I found this in what Jehovah Gods word the Bible says at John5:28,29 for there it tells us we'll see our love ones again when Jesus brings them back in the resurrection and we're also told at Isaiah25:8 this enemy death will be swallowed up forever these scriptures along with jw.org(search:comfort) help me get through each day and I'm hoping this will also help you in some way for this is my purpose in sharing this with you. Please let me know if it does and know that I do share your grief.

Sincerely, GMosley

“ I could always depend on my uncle Gene to say outloud whatever he was thinking. Not always good as he"d say, you look tired, or you"ve gained some weight. He didn"t hold back. This however was a good thing as well. He would throw out compliments just as easy. After reading dads book I was given an insight on their childhood together, they sure had some fun them two (Nick & Gene). Each of you is in our prayers. We have no way of comprehending the full depth of your loss, but we grieve, perhaps selfishly, our own, in that Trina has gone on ahead of us. Though we didn't get to know her as closely as many others did, we can see how the Lord is present in her heart. She did (and still does, praise God!) have such a pure and gentle, loving openness. She truly remains a miracle and an example for us about how to love. Thank you for the privilege of knowing her. What a blessing. May the Lord comfort you as you mourn. You're very dear to us.

I have so many things to see and do.

You must not tie yourself to me with tears,

Be happy that we had these years.

But now it is time for me to travel on alone.

it's only for awhile that we must part,

So bless the memories within your heart.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.

If you need me, call and I will come.

Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near.

And if you listen with your heart, you will hear..

All my love around you soft and clear.
