

John F. Brockel

January 12, 1948 - February 8, 2024

Brockel, John F., of Dittmer, Missouri, was born January 12, 1948, in St. Louis, Missouri to Glenn J. and Wealthy (nee Standefer) Brockel and entered into rest Thursday, February 8, 2024, in Fenton, Missouri at the age of 76 years.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Glenn J. and Wealthy (nee Standefer) Brockel.

He is survived by his loving wife, Elizabeth (nee Moser) Brockel; his children, Michael (Melissa Manis) Brockel, Timothy Brockel, and Matthew (Danielle Coley) Brockel; grandchildren, Jameson Brockel and Elliot Brockel; brother, Glenn D. (Ginny) Brockel; along with numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, family, and friends.

John was a man whose heart overflowed with love for his family and dedication to public service. Throughout his career, John walked the beat with unwavering determination, a symbol of his dedication to protecting and serving for 20 years with the St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department. He then served in the position of police sergeant for the Federal Reserve St. Louis Law Enforcement, where he spent a decade demonstrating exceptional leadership. John's commitment to upholding the principles of justice and ensuring the safety of his community was exemplified through his roles as a member of the St. Louis Police Officer Association and the International Police

Association. Beyond the uniform, John's legacy lies in the lives he touched, leaving behind a legacy of love, integrity, and an indelible mark on the law enforcement community he served so faithfully. May his memory continue to inspire and his legacy endure in the hearts of those who knew and admired him.

“ Many fond memories of the Brockel twins and Montgomery twins from our wild high school days. Football games, card games, partying, and more. I'm glad we kept in touch with Fred and Elizabeth in our later years with many gatherings at the local wineries and other get-togethers.

Rest in peace brother Fred. We will miss you.
