“ It's hard to believe you are gone brother and now there is four. 😭 My heart is broken. It just doesn't seem right that you are not here with us anymore, but I know now you are no longer suffering. Our wonderful time together two weekends ago and in February and many phone calls will stay with me forever and keep me going. I love you more than you will ever know and will miss you badly. Until we meet again! Love you baby sis! ❤️
