“ John was a good friend and worker at McDonnell Douglas. He was always helpful and a good supervisor. He drove a long ways to attend our retirement breakfasts for years, when he could. I remember his stories about caring for his parents who lived next door. We enjoyed his company and will miss him.

“ I work in activities at the nursing home John resided at. He was a kind man and could be funny at times. If you tried talking to him, he would talk back to you. Even with his condition, John did enjoy activities. He would enjoy watching movies, musical entertainment, and exercise to name a few. It was rare for him to turn down ice cream and he loved chocolate. Often times you could find John flipping through a magazine or going through baseball cards. He was a man who would always clean his plate and when he was done he would get up and put his dirty dishes in the sink or try to collect other dirty dishes to help out (bless his heart). John was always in a good mood and you would usually see him with a smile on his face. He was a smart guy too. John was family and will be deeply missed. My deepest condolences to Hazel, Mike, and the rest of John’s family. May John’s memory be a blessing. May he Rest In Peace.

“ Uncle Jack took care of his parents. He kept the pool at Grandma and Grandpa’s house nice so they could watch their grandchildren swim. I wasn’t there a lot but the times I was I saw him several times. He always smiled at me.
