“ *Dear Sue and family.
I will always have fond memories of Ed. What a gentle and kind man he was, that was totally devoted to his family. You are blessed to have the special memories that will now carry you though. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Mike* “ Cody and I would like to send our deepest sympathies. Ed was a good man. Our thoughts and prays are with you and your family.

Renee and Cody Bloecher - April 18, 2008 at 12:00 AM

“ *To Ed's family,
Everyone here at the Meridian building thought very highly of Ed. He was always kind to each and every person he would encounter and went out of his way to help everyone.
I can't tell you how often Ed would speak of his family with such pride and love. There is no greater legacy he could leave than this honor and love he had for his family.
I offer you all my deepest felt condolences and hope that you will find comfort in the promise of the resurection.
