“ I am sorry to hear about John. I had met John about 18 years ago when our son and his boys were in Boy Scouts. I always appreciated how John related to the boys and to the adults. He was great to have along on the camp-outs and other activities. He would help in any way he could. I remember the one time we were on a camp-out and even though John could not stay the night he came down to the campground one evening to visit before he had to go to work. Since he was on his way to work he had not brought a chair to sit in while we sat around the campfire so I gave him one of my stools to borrow. John was kind of big guy so I guess the stool couldn't take his weight and one of the legs broke. Being the good scouts we were we all laughed about it (after we checked to see if was ok!). He also chuckled at himself about it. He felt bad about breaking the stool I reassured him it was no big deal. I saw him about a month later and he mentioned about breaking the stool, which I again told him not to worry about it. The next thing I know he pulls a paddle out of his big blue dodge truck. He made the paddle for me because he felt bad about breaking the stool. It was awesome! It was stained a dark color and had an engraving of a fish on it. Nothing fancy, but it was extremely cool. I hadn't seen John for a number of years but would think of him when I would look at the paddle and would never dream of getting rid of it. He made an impression on me at his thoughtfulness about breaking some old stool.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Johnny's death. I am Fred Beckmann. Johnny's dad and my dad were lifelong best friends. We spent many days camping, hunting, and fishing together with our dads. Our dads were so much fun when they got together and had a few beers. I know that Johnny was a great father following in the example set by our dads.
