“ We had fun memories of doing things with Johnnie when he visited Florida, when we were there too. He would bring his special okra, that he had canned, he was a first cousin to my husband Russell and we had not met him till after year 2000. He was a very fun loving gentle soul and so kind to bring other friends to Florida, to visit us cousins.

We will always remember special times with him.

“ Cousin John was a very special person. I didn't get to know John until the later years of our lives. Whenever we were in Missouri and stopped to visit him, he always had a snack freshly baked and coffee brewed. Lots of family pictures, memories and souvenirs to show us. He had an incredible memory and loved to share stories with us. He reminded me a lot of my Dad (his Uncle Ray). His features and habits were like his. Condolences to his family as I am sure they miss him dearly. He was a friend to everyone, and would go out of his way to help you.

“ John was the only dad I remember. My birth dad died when me and Randy were very young so I have a lot of memories of John. He lived across the street and helped our family throughout the years. He married my mom and helped more times than I can remember. He is and probably will be the smartest man I have ever known. He could fix anything no matter what it was. Simply amazing. Taught me so much over the years. Helped me and my ex wife so much with our new home.

Taught me how to play ping pong too and we had many epic battles when I was a teenager. I remember how big his forearms were when he worked for St Louis shipyard and how tried with both hands to try to bring one of his arms down.

He taught me and gave me the love of gardening and taking care of trees and flowers.

Came to many of my son Sam's games when he was little as well which was greatly appreciated. So many good memories of a truly good person.

I am the man I am today because of him.

I love him so very much and I'm sorry we grew apart after he and my mom got divorced.

I am thinking of him and always will, and thinking of his family and friends during this time.

Sincerely and graciously appreciative,

Derek Rhoads

“ John Taylor was like a father to me. His daughter Susan and I were together for over 20 years, and when I asked him what I should call him, he said just call me dad. My own father was never around, so having John in my life made me see how good fathers are supposed to act. He helped me in so many ways. I'll will never be able to thank him enough. I love you dad, say hi to Susan for me <3
