“ I lived next door to the Werschings for 40 years. John, Sharon, Chris and Debbie have been the most wonderful neighbors one could hope to have. John and I would sit on my front porch and just talk about anything. He told me stories of: living near Tower Grove park, his days working at Famous Barr, how Chris could navigate his way around Webster in the sewer tunnels, how creative Debbie was and how much he enjoyed Sharon's cooking. He and Sharon would try to have a garden but the squirrels won that fight. But my strongest memory of all was seeing his dog, Gus, run out into the front yard and bring back the newspaper. I loved John and will miss him dearly. I offer Sharon and Chris and Debbie my deepest condolences. The grief will pass and the memories will last forever.
