“ Johnathan it was just your birthday. I still celebrate for you every year. I know you are here watching over me everyday. Life is going by so fast now, that I'm starting to finally find happiness in myself. I finally met a great guy. Who loves me for me. I miss you so much. Makes me cry!! I still talk to you. Thanks for singing and dancing like a cardinal bird for me and dad. It's never goodbye it's I will see you asap. On the lords terms. Thanks for helping, and walking me out of the darkness. Into this life again. I'm starting to finally realize that everything happens for a real reason. Life with out you will never be the same. However I look forward to leaving this atmosphere here, because I know you will be right their on the other side. Waiting for me to take your hand. In Jesus name Amen.
