“Pup always knew the life I was capable of. Most of the time he knew better than me. There is something about someone you respect having faith in you through your toughest moments. He had a way of making me want more for myself and helped me understand I was worth the hard work. Ive never had a role model with such a beautiful soul. He knew how to survive this upside down world, and he shared his knowledge in ways other than advice. He loved a woman so much that I seen what to expect from a man. He worked so hard and fought to be the best for his family and himself. He showed me how to do the same. I love you and you will be missed! I'll drink a beer for ya pup. Shannon

“I'm saddened with Big Jon, "Papa Louie" passing. Words of wisdom from this great man come from a lovely story about a shared coat from Chrysler. Apparently crabs can be passed around with a jacket that is shared among employees. I can see him laughing and having a beer when telling me about that situation at Chrysler. The smell of a cigar will always make me look for the big papa. You will be missed. Much love to you, Terry, Kim, June, Brittney, Johnny, Brandon & Jordan. Love, Shannon
