“ Jordan was a good friend of my son Santiago. They remained friends after high school and both enlisted into the military. Jordan was always very polite and well mannered. I am truly sorry for your loss. Although he can never be replaced, he will always be remembered.

“ We only had the pleasure of meeting Jordan a few times. At our home in Michigan a couple of times, and at William Clark's boot camp graduation. Everyone that met Jordan admired him. He never said a mean word, and was polite to everyone. He was loved by so many and will be missed! Our prayers and sympathy is with the entire family and friends! Dan and Cathy De Fouw - Holland MI.
