“ Joe -

It was a joy living “Next door,” to you for 16+ years!

I’ll never forget the day, that it was raining so hard that the dirt road, had become a mud slide. The bus had just dropped me off, and I had no idea how I was going to walk home, and not be covered in mud! As I headed down the hill, I slipped and fell—thus the mud slide reference. I looked to make sure I wasn’t bleeding, and headed home. The Calvary trumpets should have sounded, because Joe and his work truck arrived just in time! Even though I was crying, covered in mud, and drenched from the rain; Joe told me to hope in! He never gave it a second thought, just asked if I was ok, and drove me home.

He also helped when the bridge washed away from flooding, when the horses got out, and laughed when I stopped him one day to give him a buckeye.

Thank you Joe for all the small things, it proved just how big of a heart you really had.

I will miss you!

Cathie, Joel, Mandy, and Kyle “

My thoughts are with you at this time. My hope is that you find peace in the coming days. Lean on one another, give hugs as needed, and hold on to the memories!

Love and hugs,

Jennifer (Wehmer) Fortner
